Where do I lodge the form?

Notification of retirement must be lodged with the RA Service Centre.

Why must I lodge a Retired from Racing form?

The Rules of Racing (AR64J and AR64JA) make it compulsory for all retired racing horses to be recorded.

The managing owner or his or her authorised agent is responsible for lodging the form within one month of the horses retirement.

Rules of Racing

As a condition of acceptance of a Retired from Racing, all owners noted on the form must familiarise themselves with and agree to be bound by the Rules of Racing, both local and Australian as amended from time to time. The Australian Rules of Racing can be viewed at www.racingaustralia.horse. For Local Rules of Racing please contact the relevant PRA.

Assignment and Licence

Due to the essential role that RA plays in administering, promoting and reporting on thoroughbred horse racing, as well as providing racing materials, RA must be able freely to use all intellectual property rights (including but not limited to copyright) that may subsist in the name, image, jockey silks and other indicia associated with this horse.

In order to allow RA to use these intellectual property rights without impediment, as a condition of the horse's registration, you agree that RA owns all right, title or interest (including but not limited to copyright, goodwill and reputation) in the name, image, jockey silks or other indicia associated with that horse, whether existing before or after you sign this form. To the extent that you own any such intellectual property rights by force of law, you must assign them to RA. You must also undertake to RA that you will not apply to register as a trade mark any such indicia or do anything that will or may adversely affect or otherwise limit the ability of RA, the principal racing authorities or race clubs to administer, promote or report on thoroughbred racing (or authorise any other person to do so). You may request permission from RA to register a trade mark associated with the horse, and RA may accept or reject your request in its absolute discretion and subject to any conditions it deems necessary or desirable.

In exchange for the agreement, assignment and undertakings, upon registration of the horse RA will grant to you a non-exclusive, royalty-free and non-transferable licence to (a) use the name, image, jockey silks and other indicia associated with the horse where RA owns the intellectual property in such indicia for any purpose related to racing, training, promoting and otherwise dealing with the horse, including merchandising; and (b) sub-license the same to any other person.
