RACE 1: The Kosciuszko Buy Tickets! Maiden Plate 1300m:

Angiolini – Began awkwardly, shifted out and bumped with Glen Appin. When questioned regarding the disappointing performance, App Q Krogh advised that he was instructed to be positive on the filly similar to its last start at Newcastle on 31st July 2018. He added that the horse travelled well in the early and middle stages however he felt the filly did not appreciate today's soft track conditions. A post-race veterinary examination revealed no abnormalities.

Izzy or Iznthe – From it's wide barrier was steadied and shifted in behind runners. A post-race veterinary examination of the horse which was beaten 69L did not reveal any abnormalities. Trainer S Wade was advised that Izzy or Iznthe must barrier trial to the satisfaction of Stewards prior to racing again.

Glen Appin – A post-race veterinary examination of the mare which was beaten 29L revealed no abnormalities. Trainer S Wade was advised that Glen Appin must barrier trial to the satisfaction of the Stewards prior to racing again.

Olive Leaves – Began awkwardly. Raced keenly in the early stages. Hung in under pressure in the straight and proved difficult to ride out.

Maddie's The Boss – Laid in under pressure in the straight.

Safe Landing – Near the 200m laid in and was corrected by its rider.

GENERAL:

Following the running of Race 1, the Stewards in the company of a delegation of senior riders inspected a section of track shortly after the winning post that appeared waterlogged. Subsequently it was established that a well situated on the outside of the course proper had become flooded due to a malfunctioning pump within that well. Given the volume of surface water on the track, the remainder of the meeting was postponed at 1.05pm when Stewards and riders were in agreeance that conditions were not safe to continue racing.

Swab samples were taken from all winners and the following runners:

Race 1: Izzy or Iznthe, Maddie's the Boss

Race 2: Perpetual Motion, Kadoma Man, Captain Americain, Eagle Stryke
